

HOMETOWN HERO:

Duane Denison

“I could not do it without him, emotionally or financially, and I am so very thankful.”

I would like to nominate my father, Duane Denison, as my Hometown Hero. He is always there when my son Adam or I need him.

My father has taken off work, left work early, gone in late, got up at crazy hours of the night to come over, and has missed his own appointments just to help me with Adam. He has been a huge part in my son’s life and especially his fight, and I could not do it without him, emotionally or financially, and I am so very thankful.

He takes Adam to appointments, goes with me to meetings, and has learned just as much as I have about autism. He has been a huge supporter in the Walk Now for Autism and has even made a donation to the Anne Arundel Autism Society.

He is an amazing man and I am so proud to call him hero, my confidant, my mentor, my best friend, my Everyday Hometown Hero and my Dad.

Thank you, Dad!

I love you and Adam loves you!
