

HOMETOWN HEROES:

Connie & Ralph Rimel

“They have been there every step of the way from Lara’s birth to this very day with complete and unconditional love and support.”

It goes without saying that I sometimes forget the unsung heroes in my life and my daughter’s life. I would like to take the opportunity at this time to nominate the two most important people in my life, who continue to make an impact in the life of a child with an autism spectrum disorder, my parents Connie and Ralph; a.k.a. Memom and PopPop.

There are not enough words to fully express the impact they have made in our lives. They have been there every step of the way from Lara’s birth to this very day with complete and unconditional love and support. While it seems too little a statement to express my love and gratitude, thank you for always being there.
