

HOMETOWN HERO:

Teresa Rimel

“Teresa has shaped a program that has impacted students at Point Pleasant Elementary School for many years.”

Teresa has shaped a program that has impacted students at Point Pleasant Elementary School for many years. She and Jennifer Hannebohn, as well as Ellen McFarland, have put on educational programming to generate understanding and empathy for students with special needs.

She has continued with this activity even though her child is no longer at PPES!